in the Bow Valley?

If so, read on!

Bow Valley Victim Services Association

We provide assistance to victims of crime and trauma.

Individuals should:

- have the ability to provide non-judgmental support, assistance, and information to victims of crime and trauma.
- be willing to participate in an extensive training program in the areas of domestic violence, sexual assault, suicide intervention and sudden death.
- seek responsibility and a sense of accomplishment.
- be able to obtain RCMP security clearance and be willing to work closely with the RCMP.
 - possess good communication skills.
- be looking for opportunity for self development and growth.
 - possess a valid driver's license.
- must be willing to commit to a 1 year contract.

Interviews are currently being held.
Training to begin September 23, 2009
